

Can Louisiana Make A Buck After Climate Change Legislation?

Friday, August 21, 2009

LSU Center for Energy Studies

Energy Coast & Environment Bldg.

Nicholson Drive Extension

Baton Rouge, LA

A G E N D A

- | | |
|---------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 am - 9:00 am | Registration and Continental Breakfast |
| 9:00 am - 9:15 am | Welcome Remarks
Dan Juneau and Ginger Sawyer, Louisiana Association of Business and Industry
Dr. Loren Scott, Economist |
| 9:15 am - 9:40 am | The Big Picture: Can America have an appreciable effect on world climate change... and at what cost?
Dr. Margo Thorning, American Council for Capital Formation |
| 9:40 am - 10:05 am | The Small Picture: Can Louisiana have an appreciable effect on world climate change...and at what cost?
Dr. David Dismukes, LSU Center for Energy Studies |
| 10:05 am-10:30 am | What is the industry's reaction to climate change?
Gifford Briggs, Louisiana Oil and Gas Association |
| 10:30 am - 10:40 am | BREAK |
| 10:40 am - 11:05 am | The Washington Regulatory Climate
Tom Myers, US Chamber of Commerce Regulatory Affairs Counsel |
| 11:05 am -11:20 am | Can Louisiana meet Washington's renewable energy standard?
Jimmy Field, Louisiana Public Service Commission |
| 11:20 am -11:45 am | Public Policy Perspective
Dr. Elaine Kamarck, US Climate Task Force |
| 11:45 am - 12:15 pm | Keynote Speaker
Tom Michels, Legislative Director,
The Honorable United States Senator Mary Landrieu |
| 12:15 pm - 12:30 pm | Question and Answer Session & Closing Remarks |
| 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm | LUNCHEON |